Dear Prospective Sponsor,

TEXAS WALL STREET WOMEN (TXWSW) invites you to become a sponsor of our first annual Charity Education Event on May 12, 2010, benefiting the Foundation for the Education of Young Women. As an exclusive peer network of professional women in the investment management business, we are committed to mentoring and supporting women throughout their careers. It is also our mission to make a positive difference in our communities by supporting the education of young women in Texas. Investing in their education reaps a double dividend - an educated girl will become a woman who earns more money and respect for her family, who spends more on schools for her own children - who tips the balance from poverty to progress. We, the TXWSW, have volunteered our time and passion to their future. We are asking you to help us change the outcome for these underserved young women, most of whom come from economically disadvantaged homes and will be the first in their families to attend college.

On May 12, 2010, the Education Committee will host a dynamic Panel Discussion and Sponsor Dinner featuring Outstanding Women in finance today and moderated by Dr. Jill Foote (see bios below). The focus of the discussion will be the Investment Outlook and the Impact of Changes in the Regulatory Environment. Given the recent and expected changes under the current government administration, we believe this will be a very timely and interesting topic.

Our committee will be extending invitations to this event to the over 700 TXWSW members as well as the Texas financial and business community as a whole. We anticipate an attendance of 200-250 professionals. In addition to the panel discussion, we will host a pre-panel reception as well as a cocktail hour after the discussion. All sponsors will also receive an exclusive invitation to dinner with the speakers following the panel presentation. As a non-profit organization, we rely on corporate sponsors, such as yourselves, as the primary source of funding for this event.

In order to attend the event, all attendees will make a donation to support the Foundation for the Education of Young Women, which is a 501(c) (3) organization with the mission to support single-sex, college preparatory, public education in Texas that will give young women in urban schools the academic skills to achieve success in college and in life by thinking critically, leading purposefully, and living active, healthy and responsible lives. The goal of the Foundation for the Education of Young Women is to have one hundred percent of the students in its sponsored schools to not only graduate from high school but to attend and graduate from college. The majority of these young women will be the first in their families to complete high school, much less consider attending college. Currently, the Foundation is serving over 1,000 young women in its sponsored schools in Dallas, Austin, San Antonio, and Lubbock. These schools are the ONLY all female public schools in Texas. For more information on this deserving organization, please logon to their website at www.feyw.org

Your sponsorship will assure the success of the event. There are many opportunities and great rewards available. Enclosed please find additional information about this exciting event and its sponsorship levels as well as a response card. Please do not hesitate to contact one of the members listed to the left with any questions.

Sincerely,
Texas Wall Street Women Education Committee
